

Study Day and Site Visit

21 & 22 October 2022

THE FOLLIES TRUST

The Follies Trust in partnership with the Irish Georgian Society and with funding from the Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage is undertaking two events – a study day followed by a site visit – to raise awareness and increase understanding of the Malone mausoleum within the context of the Early Christian site at Kilbixy, Co. Westmeath.

Irish
Georgian
Society

An Roinn Tithíochta,
Rialtais Áitiúil agus Oidhreacht
Department of Housing,
Local Government and Heritage

STUDY DAY 1

City Assembly House, 58 South William Street, Dublin 2

- 13.30 - 13.40 WELCOME
- 13.40 - 14.00 Mausolea Hibernica
Michael Craig
- 14.00 - 14.30 Monumental Kilbixy – a survey of the Archaeological landscape around the medieval settlement of Kilbixy, Co. Westmeath.
Caimin O'Brien
- 14.30 - 14.50 From Ballynahown to Baronston, the Malone family of Kilbixy.
Kevin V. Mulligan
- 14.50 - 15.30 James Wyatt (1746-1813) and Kilbixy, Ballynacarrigy, Co. Westmeath: a reflection on context and influence.
Lynda Mulvin
- 15.30 - 16.00 The restoration of the Darnley mausoleum, Cobham, Kent.
Jamie Coath
- 16.00 - 16.30 The survey of the Malone mausoleum, Kilbixy 2022.
Richard McLoughlin
- 16.30 - 17.00 Q&A

STUDY DAY 2

Kilbixy Church, Ballynacarrigy, Co. Westmeath

- 10.30 - 11.15 Tour of site
- 11.15 - 11.50 Kilbixy: the history of a lost town.
Ruth Illingworth
- 11.50 - 12.20 James Wyatt in Ireland.
Dr Conor Lucey
- 12.20 - 12.40 Tour of the Malone Mausoleum and Leper Hospital, Kilbixy.
Richard McLoughlin
- Light lunch

COST FOR STUDY DAYS

€25 for 2 days or €15 for 1 day
Students: €20 for 2 days or €10 for 1 day

BOOKING TICKETS & PAYMENT

Please go to www.eventbrite.co.uk and enter search for Malone mausoleum.

All funds go towards works at the Malone mausoleum.