

Lecture by John Goodall
Architecture in Landscape
In Conjunction with The Follies Trust
Assembly Rooms
Irish Linen Centre & Lisburn Museum
Tuesday 30th April 2024
7pm – 8.30 pm

As much as our appreciation of buildings is inextricably bound up with their setting, so our understanding of landscapes can be shaped by the placement and form of monuments and architecture within them. This talk will consider the inter-relationship of architecture and landscape in the grand narrative of architecture in Britain and Ireland. It will also consider the ways in which the Picturesque and Romantic movements sought to shape landscape to aesthetic effect as a foil for architecture.

John Goodall is the architectural editor of Country Life. His most recent books are The English Castle 1066-1650 (2011), Parish Church Treasures (2015), Interior House Style (2019) and The Castle: A History (2022). John sits on the fabric advisory committees of several English cathedrals and great churches as well as the Cathedrals Fabric Committee for England.

Members of UAH/Friends of The Follies Trust: £8

Non-members: £10

Students: £3

Light refreshments will be served from 6.30 pm.

Lecture to start promptly at 7 pm.

Lisburn Museum is situated in the centre of Lisburn in Market Square, BT28 1AG. Limited on-street parking is available but there are several carparks nearby. The museum is 300m from Lisburn Railway Station which is accessed via Railway Street.